

The Airport is a diverse community with special people, places and events that make the Guam International Airport an exciting and unique place to work and travel. See our top 3 picks of what you need to know, and get the latest news about GUAM's only commercial airport!

PEOPLE

Airlines,
 Regulatory Agencies &
 Service Providers

Airlines, regulatory agencies and service providers participated in Visioning Sessions to identify the Airport's needs and potential for short and long term development as part of GIAA's update to its 2012 Airport Master Plan.

PLACES

Runway 6R/24L
 GUM Airfield

Runway 6R/24L centerlines and lead lines are marked professionally by the Airport's Properties & Facilities painting crew. Runway markings are important in enabling the airplane to navigate and avoid incursion on the runway.

EVENTS

Airfield Emergency
 Response Drills

ARFF's Platoon A successfully responds to an unannounced emergency drill. Drills ensure our units are ready for any type of emergency and is critical in meeting our requirements as a Civil Airport Operator under Federal Aviation Regulations Part 139.

The A. B. Won Pat International Airport Authority, Guam is a self-sustaining autonomous government agency, charged with the mission to ensure the safety and security of the traveling public, maintain superior and reliable level of airport services, and support the development of air services and facilities which are integral to the island's economic growth.

Guam Airport Exhibit in Central Ticket Lobby

Guam's official flag is proudly flown to represent Guam and the CHamoru people and heritage. The flag of Guam dates back to 1917 and was officially adopted on February 9, 1948. The oval outline of the Guam Seal represents the ancient CHamoru slingstone, a weapon skillfully wielded by our ancestors. In the seal are the Hagåtña River where it meets the sea; the beach graced by a lone coconut palm that symbolizes sustenance; and a flying proa, the chief means of transportation for early CHamoros. These aspects of CHamoru culture symbolize the courage, perseverance and prowess of our ancestors. (Extracted from Guampedia.com)
