United Airlines Hosts Successful FOD Walk

Many thanks to the nearly 20 volunteers who participated in the United Airlines-hosted FOD, or Foreign Object Debris, Walk on December 19, 2023. A total of 58 pounds of debris was collected. FOD Walks are held routinely to clear the flightline of any objects alien to the area that could potentially cause damage to aircraft. This proactive task ensures the safety of our passengers and those who work on or near the runway.

USCBP Acting Deputy Commissioner Meet and Greet

USCBP MEET AND GREET. Pete Flores, Acting Deputy Commissioner of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (USCBP), was on island for internal meetings with Guam USCBP and to tour airport facilities. A meet and greet took place with Mr. Flores, David Salazar - Director, Field Operations San Francisco, George Minamishin - Area Port Director, Port of Honolulu, Mark Pablo - Port Director, CBP Guam Port of Entry, Kenneth Gibbons - Chief CBP Officer, CBP Guam Port of Entry, Governor Lou Leon Guerrero, Speaker Therese Terlaje, Senator Jesse Lujan, and John M. Quinata - GIAA Executive Manager on December 16, 2023.

United Airlines Takes a Fantasy Flight

UNITED TAKES FLIGHT. The Guam Airport was filled with the sounds of holiday cheer and excitement as 69 children boarded a magical Fantasy Flight on United Airlines (UA) to the North Pole on December 14, 2023. This ninth annual event treated the children of Mane'lu, formerly Big Brothers Big Sisters of Guam and Make-A-Wish Guam & CNMI and

The Make-A-Wish Foundation. The children went on a short flight up north, headed back to the Guam Airport, landed safely at the UA hangar, were greeted with cheers by UA staff, and treated to photos with Santa, special entertainment, presents, and loads of delicious food and treats.

GIAA Conducts Annual Cybersecurity Table Top Exercise

The Airport Police Regulatory Access Compliance (RACCS) and the GIAA Management Information Systems (MIS) Section conducted the Annual Table Top Exercise (Cybersecurity) on December 15, 2023. The purpose of the security exercise was to review and discuss timely, effective and coordinated responses to a security incident. The exercise also provided an opportunity for relevant stakeholders to review their response procedures, plans and decision-making processes, discover gaps, and share information. Participants included airlines servicing Guam, Transportation Security Administration, Guam Customs & Quarantine Agency, U.S. Customs & Border Protection, UPS, Airport Police, and GIAA Operations. Pictured above: Timothy Dominguez, Computer Systems Analyst II of the GIAA MIS Section, makes a presentation to attendees at the Annual Table Top Exercise - Cybersecurity.

GCC Air Transportation Industry Students Tour Guam Airport

Students from the Guam Community College went on a tour of the Guam Airport, where they were greeted by Airport Police and United Airlines representatives. As part of their Air Transportation Industry course, the students received briefings from the Transportation Security Administration, GIAA Operations, U.S. Customs & Border Protection and Guam Customs & Quarantine and were given a tour of the tower and a United Airlines aircraft.

GIAA Spreads Holiday Cheer

GIAA GIVES TOYS FOR TOTS. In the spirit of giving this holiday season, GIAA and the GIAA Employee Organization collaborated to donate dozens of toys to “The Marine Toys for Tots Program” on December 5, 2023.

This annual toy collection and distribution program unites all members of local communities and brings Christmas joy and a message of hope to less fortunate children in the United States and on our island.

Legislative Oversight Committee Tours Guam Airport

GIAA Executive Manager, John M. Quinata, and GIAA Deputy Executive Manager, Artemio “Ricky” Hernandez, PhD., led a comprehensive tour of the airport terminal and facilities for Senator Jesse A. Lujan and Senator Sabina F. Perez, on December 19, 2023. Seen above: Mr. Quinata speaks to Senator Lujan, Senator Perez and staff of Senator Joe S. San Agustin, while Dr. Hernandez looks on.

GIAA Celebrates 'The Magic of Christmas'

CHRISTMAS MAGIC. GIAA shared its holiday spirit at this year's "Magic of Christmas" Christmas Parade held at Skinner Plaza in Hagatna on December 21, 2023.
