Baseball Champs Receive Warm Homecoming at Guam Airport

Senior Division Champions, upon their arrival at the Guam Airport on April 4, 2024. GIAA congratulates them on their historic victory and wishes them the best as they prepare to represent our island at the Little League World Series in South Carolina in July.

United Airlines Hosts Successful April FOD Walk

United Airlines hosted another successful FOD Walk on April 16, 2024. Many thanks to GIAA's volunteers who helped to collect 14 pounds of FOD, or Foreign Object Debris.

This monthly event is a proactive approach to ensuring that the flightline is cleared of debris that could cause damage to aircraft, equipment, and personnel.

Island Leadership Day at Guam Airport

GIAA HOSTS STUDENT LEADERS. GIAA Management and Island Leadership Day youth counterparts gather for an official photo at the Guam Airport on April 19, 2024. The students were selected to shadow airport management and division heads for the day, where they got an up-close glimpse of the dynamic roles and immense responsibilities of running Guam's only commercial airport. GIAA wishes them and all of our island's youth the best in their future academic and personal endeavors and encourages them to consider a career in the exciting field of aviation.

ARFF Conducts Incident Safety Officer Training

The GIAA Aircraft Rescue & Fire Fighting (ARFF) Division conducted a two-day Incident Safety Officer Training on April 15 and 17, 2024, for personnel from GIAA ARFF, the Guam Fire Department and Andersen Fire. The course is an incident-specific and scenario-oriented one, designed to teach students what an Incident Safety Officer (ISO) needs to know at an incident. It is designed for fire and Emergency Medical Services (EMS) responders who may be designated by the Incident Commander (IC) as an ISO while working within an Incident Command System (ICS). These assignments may occur during firefighting, EMS, special-operations incidents, and training evolutions.

Airport Police Receives Re-certification Training

POLICE IN TRAINING. Airport Police Division officers and guards are currently undergoing re-certification training for Use of Force and Active Shooter from April 15 - May 24, 2024. Pictured above: Officers and Guards of the Airport

Police Division watch intently as Airport Police Officer Cameron Chaco and Airport Police Officer Randy Chaco demonstrate use of force techniques during re-certification training on April 16, 2024.

GVB Greets MICE Group from Taiwan

Hafa Adai! Representatives from the Guam Visitors Bureau spread warm “Hafa Adai” greetings to a total of 167 MICE Group passengers who arrived at the Guam Airport on two charter flights from Taiwan on April 22 and 23, 2024. MICE is an acronym that stands for Meetings, Incentives, Conferences, and Exhibitions. The passengers were from Shin Kong Life, a Taiwan-based insurance company and were rewarded with a four-day stay on Guam, as part of the company's incentives program.

ARFF Pulls Together for Autism

PULLING FOR AUTISM. In an effort to show support of Autism Awareness Month, members of GIAA's Aircraft Rescue & Fire Fighting (ARFF) Division participated in the 2024 Fire Truck Pull for Autism - a partnership event between the Guam Fire Department and Autism Community Together - on April 27, 2024, at the University of Guam in Mangilao.

Pictured above: GIAA ARFF fire fighters work together to pull with all their might at the Fire Truck Pull for Autism event. The ten-member team came in at an impressive third place in this incredibly worthwhile event, which brought awareness and support of individuals living with and families touched by autism.

GIAA Employee Organization Elects New Officers

Congratulations to the new team of executive officers of the GIAA Employee Organization, which recently held elections on April 26, 2024. This non-profit organization, established for the employees of GIAA, improves employee morale, fosters good employee relations with management and other civic organizations, and develops programs and organizes activities that benefit and improve the general welfare of member employees and their families. Pictured left to right: Austin Grant - President, Trini Cotelesse - Vice President, Nikki Perez - Secretary, and Lori Cruz - Treasurer.

GIAA Crowned DPR Co-Ed Basketball Champs

Devin Sudo, Arlino Oftana, Marco Munoz, Michael Winn, Joseph Javellana, Daniel Mantanona, John "JQ" M. Quinata - Executive Manager, and Dean Delgado. GIAA congratulates DPR on coordinating a successful basketball league and looks forward to defending its title next season. Biba, Team GIAA!

Fahinis, Butterflies, and Kokos Visit Guam Airport

FLYING FANIHIS! The “Fanihis” of D. L. Perez Elementary School are all smiles as they head down the aisle of a United Airlines aircraft, while on an airport tour on April 9, 2024.

WELCOME ABOARD, FANIHIS! D. L. Perez Elementary School “Fanihis” listen excitedly as a United Airlines pilot greets them before boarding an aircraft, as part of their tour of the Guam Airport on April 23, 2024.

BUTTERFLIES READY FOR TAKEOFF! Two “Lady Butterflies” of Astumbo Elementary School smile for the camera while inside a United Airlines cockpit, during an airport tour on April 16, 2024.

KOKOS TAKE FLIGHT. Little “Kokos” of Carbullido Elementary School’s Head Start Program stand in awe as they watch activity on the Apron of the Guam Airport on April 30, 2024.

GIAA Attends National Level Exercise 2024

GIAA Executive Manager, John "JQ" M. Quinata and personnel from the Engineering Division and the Management Information Systems Section attended the National Level Exercise on April 24, 2024, at the RI-HGA Royal Laguna Guam Resort. The exercise, organized by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), is a two-year cycle of selected exercises that tests the operational capabilities, policies, plans and communication strategies of all levels of the government, the private sector, non-government organizations, and community groups. This year's exercise scenario involved the impact of a large hurricane on the Hawaiian islands and cyber-attacks in Guam, both of which would complicate the supply chain issues caused by damage at Honolulu Harbor.

GIAA Celebrates Its Administrative Professionals

This Administrative Professional's Day, GIAA celebrates its incredibly hardworking administrative personnel - the team who works behind the scenes, the heroes who perform diligently to help keep our offices running smoothly, effectively, and efficiently.
